

Red Wine

Bottle 75cl

- Freedom Cross Cinsault/Cabernet, Western Cape 2011 (South Africa) £16.50
Making the most of the Cape's wonderful growing conditions, two French grape varieties are used in this wine to make a fabulously good value red. Juicy blackcurrant is complemented by an attractive pepperiness.
- Lyrebird Shiraz, South Eastern Australia 2011 (Australia) £17.50
From the family-run Wingara Winery in Mildura comes this ripe and fruity red that overflows with berries, plums and a hint of vanilla oak. Well-balanced, soft and juicy, and a wine that boxes above it's weight.
- Château du Grand Moulas, Côtes du Rhône, M Ryckwaert 2011 (France) £16.50
Made near Orange at Mornas, this wine is ripe and flavoursome with depth of fruit and herby flavours. It is fresh, easy and very enjoyable now. The irrepressible Marc Ryckwaert has been making wine here for many years.
- Sunnycliff Cabernet Sauvignon, Victoria 2008 (Australia) £19.50
This is a combination of fruit from Mildura and Coonawarra, the latter a prime area in Australia for Cabernet Sauvignon. Cabernet can be hard as nails, but this beauty is a soft, supple and fruity ripper of a red, ripe and ready.
- Tanners Claret, Bordeaux (France) £16.75
This has been made even more attractive by the addition of some extra old-vine Merlot to give it a bit more of the succulence and juiciness for which it is renowned, while still retaining its classic balance and style.
- Chianti Colli Senesi DOCG, Geografico 2011 (Italy) £16.50
Brick red in colour with a nose of cherries and spice, this great value Chianti comes from the hills around Siena and is made by the excellent Geografico co-operative. Medium body and mild tannins make it all too easy to drink.
- Gustales Crianza, Rioja 2008 (Spain) £18.50
Antonio Navajas produces excellent Rioja with the majority of production being sold in UK. With 15 months in oak, this is a most appealing wine showing strawberry fruit and vanilla on the nose and a smooth, silky palate.
- Karri Oak Estate Shiraz, Western Australia 2010 (Australia) £17.50
A stylish nose of black plum, dark berries, vanilla and spice. The palate is sweet and fleshy with more plum and blueberry fruit, richly textured with a fine finish. A fine credit to the fruit grown by Chris Zur at this excellent estate.

9. Arbouse, Côtes du Rhône Villages-Massif d'Uchaux 2011 (France) £22.50
Good rich fruit and silky texture with cherry and blackberry flavours and spicy length.
10. Cousiño Macul Antiguas Reservas, Cabernet Sauvignon, Maipo 2009 (Chile) £22.75
Aged for one year in French oak with further ageing in bottle, the style here is quite classic having excellent ripe blackcurrant flavours with a good backbone. Good length too.
11. Saint-Emilion, Christian Moueix 2008 (France) £27.50
Libourne-based négociants J-P Moueix are specialists in the wines of that region and their Saint-Emilion, soft and plummy, is one of the very best available. This is superb value so don't be put off by the lack of a château name.
12. Vacqueyras, Cuvée des Templiers, Domaine le Clos des Cazaux 2010 (France) £30.75
A wonderful, deep red colour, with aromas of red fruits backed by hints of leather. Great depth of flavour comes from the high proportion of Syrah grapes that are cooled on harvest to 15°C to preserve the freshness of fruit.
13. L'Opéra du Château Villarambert-Julien, Minervois 2008 (France) £18.75
Michel Julien named this wine after the Trianon opera house in Paris, which is embellished in locally quarried marble. It has good Rhône fruit flavours and elegance attributable to the vineyard's marbly soils.
14. Duorum Colheita, Douro Red 2010 (Portugal) £22.00
Deep colour, very fresh with lovely blackberry fruit, clean and elegant. This has had twelve months in oak, 30% new oak. Really good value.
15. Mitchell 'Sevenhill Vineyard' Cabernet Sauvignon, Clare Valley 2005 (Australia) £26.50
Andrew and Jane Mitchell are tirelessly innovative in their efforts to improve their wines. This mint, blackcurrant and green pepper Cabernet, tastes as good as it gets: a well rounded wine with a touch of new oak.
16. Valpolicella DOC, Zeni 2011 (Italy) £16.50
The charming Zeni family, with their cellars and winemaking museum near Lake Garda, makes this delicious, soft, fruity Valpolicella. A short time in oak adds an extra dimension of flavour.
17. Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Télégramme, H Brunier et Fils 2010 (France) £47.00
Lovely soft fruit with spice, plums, herbs and a touch of leather behind. Quite forward in the mouth with soft, ripe tannins, great length and a luscious finish. This is the second wine of Domaine du Vieux Télégraphe.

Rosé Wine

Bottle 75cl

18. Pinot Grigio Rosé, Provincia di Pavia IGT, Ca' Solare 2011 (Italy) £16.75
A copper pink rosé from Northern Italy's Pavia region with gently fragrant summer fruits on the nose and delicate strawberry fruit on the palate. Fruitily off-dry.

White Wines

Bottle 75cl

19. Soave DOC, Clivus, Cantina di Monteforte 2011 (Italy) £15.25
Clivus is fruity, crisp, refreshing example of this famous white from near Verona in North Eastern Italy. It is best when served chilled.
20. Los Vilos Chardonnay, Valle Central 2012 (Chile) £15.95
Chardonnay and a dash of Sauvignon Blanc blend well to give aromas of tropical fruit, and well-tuned weight on the palate making this a very quaffable dry white.
21. Rüdesheimer Rosengarten QbA, Weinvertrieb Nahetal, Nahe 2010 (Germany) £15.50
This has lovely forward fruit with flavours of pears and green apple. Fresh, lively acidity and an off-dry sweetness on the palate make it especially delicious summer drinking.
22. Freedom Cross Chenin Blanc, Western Cape, Franschoek Cellar (South Africa) £16.75
Brilliant value wine from Chenin, the Cape's favourite white grape. Full, ripe apple fruit mingles with tropical flavours leading to a clean, dry finish. As ideal with food as it is without.
23. Lyrebird Colombard/Chardonnay Victoria (Australia) £17.75
Family run Wingara Winery in Mildura delivers this deliciously tropical fruity wine, boasting hints of melon and a subtle oak character. There is a good weight of fruit on the palate that is refreshing with a dry finish.
24. Frascati Superiore DOC, Terre dei Pallavicini 2011 (Italy) £15.75
Frascati, the staple white of Rome's trattorias, is rarely serious and this is no exception. A fresh, fruity, slightly petillant dry white to be drunk for pure pleasure.
25. Muscadet Sèvre-et-Maine, Sur Lie, Domaine Fief de la Brie 2011 (France) £16.75
An attractive white with crisp acidity that is ideal with seafood. The wine is aged on its lees, or sediment, for six months to impart more body to the wine.
26. Sunnycliff Chardonnay, Victoria 2010 (Australia) £19.50
Mildura in northern Victoria is the perfect place for vines, with water from the Murray and sunshine in abundance. This wine has sheer drinkability, everything is well balanced so one glass is not enough!
27. Tanners White Burgundy, Bourgogne Chardonnay 2011 (France) £19.50
One of the few wines selected to go under the Tanners label, this is classic white Burgundy with a succulent, buttery Chardonnay character and a touch of oak to give it breadth.
28. Churton Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough 2011 (New Zealand) £26.00
A delicious full-flavoured Sauvignon, none of your usual unsubtle gooseberry flavours here, but a wine full of ripe passion fruit and mango with a subtle mineral finish. This wine is extremely well-balanced with a lingering finish.

|-----|--|--------|
| 29. | Mâcon-Chardonnay, Talmard 2011 (France)
Growing grapes and wheat in a pretty area of mixed farming, the Talmard family makes a superb value Mâcon that has rich, citrusy fruit and creamy texture. It is both made from Chardonnay and comes from the village of Chardonnay. | £21.50 |
| 30. | Vouvray, Château Gaudrelle 2011 (France)
The ebullient Alexandre Monmousseau took over his family's estate in 1984. He makes classic Vouvray in the "sec-tendre" style with just the right amount of residual sugar to balance out the racy acidity of the Chenin Blanc grape. | £22.75 |
| 31. | Sancerre, André Dezat et Fils 2011 (France)
André Dezat and his sons produce one of the best Sancerres we have tasted; it is dry, fruity with a wonderfully delicate bouquet and great length. Their vineyards have three different types of soil which give added complexity. | £28.00 |
| 32. | Pouilly-Fumé, Domaine Thibault, André Dezat (France)
André Dezat and his family produce elegant, very fine white wines and his Pouilly-Fumé is no exception. It is best drunk young to appreciate its fruit and the smoky gun-flint characteristics so indicative of this famous region. | £28.50 |

Dessert Wine

Half bottle 37.5 cl

|-----|---|--------|
| 51. | Prosecco Frizzante, Treviso, Fabio Ceschin (Italy)
The Glera grapes for this wine are from the foothills of Conegliano and Valdobbiadene. The result is a gently sparkling wine with lovely peachy fruit, the palate is deliciously juicy with super balance. A great apéritif. | £17.00 |
| 52. | Rosè Vino Frizzante, Veneto, Fabio Ceschin (Italy)
From the little known Raboso grape variety, this is a charming rosé full of soft raspberry fruit. On the palate it is light and fresh initially sweet fruited then perfectly balanced with refreshing acidity. | £18.00 |

Red Wines

Half bottle 37.5cl

33. Tanners Claret, Bordeaux - Half (France) £8.75
This has been made even more attractive by the addition of some extra old-vine Merlot to give it a bit more of the succulence and juiciness for which it is renowned, while still retaining its classic balance and style.
34. Château du Grand Moulas, Côtes-du-Rhône, M Ryckwaert 2011 - Half (France) £10.25
Made near Orange at Mornas, this wine is ripe and flavoursome with depth of fruit and herby flavours. It is fresh, easy and very enjoyable now.
35. Concha y Toro Mountain Range Merlot, Valle Central 2011 - Half (Chile) £8.50
Bursting with cherry and ripe, red berry fruits intertwined with pepper and a touch of coffee bean. Elegant and medium-bodied, this is an easy, pleasing all-rounder, delicious with pasta, ham and cheese.
36. Château Montaignillon, Montagne-Saint-Emilion 2009 - Half (France) £15.25
This has a delicious supple red fruit character of plums, blackcurrants and cherries backed up by good structure and ripe tannins. It will age well. The property is wonderfully situated looking down to Saint-Emilion and Pomerol.
37. Fleurie, Domaine de Viroylette, J Charlet 2010 - Half (France) £13.00
Attractive, wild strawberry fruit is abundant in this wine making it a particularly juicy and good value example. Fleurie is the most famous of the ten superior, 'cru' villages of Beaujolais.
38. Château Musar, G Hochar 2004 - Half (Lebanon) £23.50
This near legendary Lebanese estate was founded by Gaston Hochar in 1930 in a region with a 6,000 year old wine-producing history started by the Phoenicians. Very ripe fruit, with spice and leather. Musar cellars well.

White Wines

Half bottle 37.5cl

39. Muscadet Sèvre-et-Maine, Sur Lie, Domaine Fief de la Brie 2011 - Half (France) £9.75
An attractive white with crisp acidity that is ideal with seafood. The wine is aged on its lees, or sediment, for six months to impart more body to the wine. The grapes come from François Bonhomme's finest vineyard.
40. Concha y Toro Mountain Range Sauvignon Blanc, Valle Central 2011 - Half (Chile) £8.50
A typically fresh, lively Sauvignon with light gooseberry aromas and flavours. Less intense than a New Zealand Sauvignon, it is still fruity with zippy acidity.
41. Mâcon-Chardonnay, Talmard 2011 - Half (France) £11.95
Growing grapes and wheat in a pretty area of mixed farming, the Talmard family makes a superb value Mâcon that has rich, citrusy fruit and creamy texture. It is both made from Chardonnay and comes from the village of Chardonnay.
42. Sancerre, André Dezat et Fils 2011 - Half (France) £14.95
André Dezat and his sons produce one of the best Sancerres we have tasted; it is dry and fruity with a wonderfully delicate bouquet and great length. Their vineyards have three different types of soil which give added complexity.

Red Wines

Single serve

43. Concha y Toro Mountain Range Cabernet Sauvignon, Valle Central 2010 - 18.7cl (Chile) £4.50
The classic combination of Cabernet Sauvignon and a dash of Merlot makes this a fruity, soft and flavoursome red. It is very good value and great for barbecues.
44. Waters Edge Shiraz - 18.7cl (Australia) £4.50
This friendly little bottle is ideal for picnics and is full of ripe, fruity blackberry flavours and oozes truckloads of ozzy sunshine. Fair dinkum.
45. CVNE Rioja Crianza - 18.7cl (Spain) £5.60
Quite a full, deep, expressive nose with briar fruits, plums and toasty vanilla. Soft and round, with a ripe fruity palate, in a perfect size for a glass and a half. Jesus Madrazo oversees the carefully controlled winemaking.

White Wines

Single serve

46. Concha y Toro Chardonnay, Valle Central 2010 - 18.7cl (Chile) £4.50
This fruity Chardonnay has lemony flavours and balancing acidity but a full body. Concha y Toro is one of Chile's larger and most reliable producers.
47. Louis de Briand Chardonnay, VdP d'Oc - 18.75cl (France) £4.50
This soft, buttery Chardonnay with its juicy melon flavours provides a perfect couple of glasses to go with food or to drink on its own.
48. Peplers Field Chenin Blanc, South Africa - 18.7cl (South Africa) £4.50
Crisp, dry South African white made from Chenin, the Cape's most popular white grape. Enough warm climate, rich fruit makes this an ideal wine for any occasion.

Rose Wines
